Dive In (10 Minutes)

Go around and let everyone share... What is the most awe-inspiring or majestic place you have ever visited (such as a beautiful beach, a sweeping mountain range, or an overwhelming natural wonder)? How did standing in that environment make you feel about yourself and your place in the world?

Dig Deep (40 Minutes)

Read Isaiah 6:1-8 aloud.

- Examine verses 1–3 ("...I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne... 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory'"). Isaiah catches a terrifyingly glorious vision of God's absolute majesty, far removed from the earthly political instability of King Uzziah's death. Why is regularly anchoring our perspective in God's holiness so vital for grounding our worship when our circumstances feel unstable?

- Notice the immediate reaction in verse 5: "Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips..." When Isaiah encounters the absolute purity of God, he is instantly undone by his own sin. How does a true revelation of God's holiness always lead to a deep, honest recognition of our own spiritual condition?

- Look at the cleansing described in verses 6–7 ("With that, one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal... 'See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for'"). God didn't leave Isaiah in his guilt; He initiated cleansing and restoration. When you reflect on how God has atoned for your own sin through Christ, how does realizing your guilt is fully removed fuel your freedom to worship?

- Look at Isaiah's response in the second half of verse 8: "And I said, 'Here am I. Send me!'" True worship doesn't just stop at praise inside a sanctuary; it overflows into radical obedience. How does experiencing God's grace naturally compel us to step out and answer His call, regardless of the cost?

Do Big (10 Minutes)

- Tell about a time when you experienced a powerful moment of worship or realization of God's grace that pushed you past your comfort zone to say "yes" to Him. How will you bring that same surrendered, ready attitude to life and your daily mission field this week?
